SPIRIT WEEK

Monday, November 16th, is Spirit Week. Students will be dressing up daily to show off their school spirit. There will be no charge for dressing up, but we are requesting our students to bring in canned goods daily to help feed those in need. Students who dress inappropriately will be required to have a change of clothing brought to the school. Due to Grandparents Day, our special Thanksgiving Meal, Book Fair and Sports Auction on Friday, students will not be dressing up on that day.

The dress up days are as follows:

Monday: Sports Day

Tuesday: HCS Spirit Day

Wednesday: Tacky Day

Thursday: Character Day

On Tuesday, November 17th, we are having our first pep-rally to kick off the basketball season. The pep-rally begins promptly at 1:26.

During the pep-rally the HCS basketball team players, cheerleaders, and their coaches will be introduced for the 2009-2010 season. Our cheerleaders will be performing cheers to get everyone excited about the game against Victory Christian.

Also, the elementary grades will be performing their cheers for our Spirit Week contest. After all the cheers have been performed the winners for the Spirit Wall contest will be announced.

Come and enjoy the festivities with your child. Be sure to bring your camera!!

Have a blessed and safe Thanksgiving
